

India: Logwin opens office in Hyderabad

Grevenmacher (Luxembourg) – The global logistics service provider Logwin is expanding in India. The company opened an office in the metropolis of Hyderabad in October. This means that Logwin now operates a total of nine locations in India in Bengaluru, Chennai, Hyderabad, Karur, Mumbai, New Delhi, Pune, Tirupur and Tuticorin.

Hyderabad is the capital of the Indian state of Andhra Pradesh and is regarded as an IT center and an important location for the pharmaceuticals industry. The city has an international airport, a container depot and a direct highway connection to the sea port of Vishakhapatnam. “Our presence in Hyderabad will enable us to accompany and shape the rapid economic development of Andhra Pradesh”, says Vijay Nair, Logwin’s Country Director in India. “We see a great deal more potential for us – both in the city as well as throughout the state.”

Logwin has been operating in India since 2008. Today the logistics service provider employs 74 people throughout the country. They organize air, sea and land transportation, provide warehousing and value added services, perform customs clearance and full distribution. Logwin develops special industry-specific solutions in particular for the fashion and automotive sectors.
