The Board of Directors proposes that the compensation for the non-executive members of the Board of Directors for fiscal year 2011 be set at 180,000.– EUR.

Agenda of the 2012 Extraordinary General Meeting of the Logwin AG

1| Discussion of the Board of Director's suggestion that changes be made to the Company Statutes in Articles 8, 14, 18 and 24, in particular to make the Company Statutes conform with the law of May 24, 2011 about the exercising of various shareholder rights in Annual General Meetings of publically listed companies.

2| Amendment of Article 8 Paragraph (3) of the Statutes of the Company so that it reads as follows:

“Members of the Board of Directors who are also simultaneously members of the Executive Committee will also be designated as «Executive Members of the Board».”

3| Amendment of Article 14 of the Statutes of the Company so that it reads as follows:

“(1) Only those shareholders are allowed to participate in the General Meeting and to exercise voting rights who, at twenty-four hours (24.00h) on the fourteenth (14th) day before the day of the General Meeting, hold shares and submit a registration in text form in German, English or French before the General Meeting and have shown proof to the Company of their eligibility to participate. The registration must be received by the Company at the address announced for this in the notice of said meeting by the fourteenth (14th) day before the General Meeting at the latest.

(2) Shareholders must show proof of their eligibility for participation in the General Meeting and for exercising their voting rights. To do so, evidence in text form in German, English or French is required from the depository bank showing the holding of shares. This evidence must be received by the Company at the address announced for this in the notice of said meeting by the deadline announced in the said notice of said meeting.

(3) Those persons who are entitled to participate will be sent admissions tickets and ballot papers.

(4) Voting rights may be exercised by a proxy voting representative on the basis of a written certificate of authority. Details about exercising voting rights through use of a proxy voting representative will be announced in tandem with the notice of the General Meeting.”

4| Amendment of Article 18 Paragraph (2) of the Statutes of the Company so that it reads as follows:

“The Board of Directors must call a General Meeting in the case that shareholders who represent at least ten (10) percent of the registered (subscribed) capital submit such a request in writing with inclusion of an agenda to the Board of Directors.”

5 | Amendment of Article 24 of the Statutes of the Company so that it reads as follows:

“All points that are not specified in this Statute are governed by the provisions of the law of May 24, 2011 about the exercising of various shareholder rights at the General Meetings of publicly listed companies and, inasmuch as it is applicable, the law of August 10, 1915 about trading companies as respectively amended.”

Attendance and Majority Requirements

The Ordinary Annual General Meeting does not require a majority of shareholders to be present. The resolutions of the Ordinary Annual General Meeting shall be carried with a simple majority of the present and represented shareholders.

The Extraordinary General Meeting requires at least half of the subscribed capital to be present and represented. The resolutions of the Extraordinary General Meeting shall be carried with a two-thirds majority of the present and represented shareholders.

Registered Share Capital, Voting and Other Rights

At the time of convening of the General Meetings the Company's registered (subscribed) capital equals 131,202,165.– EUR, and it is divided into 146,257,596 no-par value bearer shares. Each share entitles the holder to one vote, thus the total number of votes equals 146,257,596. To the Company's knowledge, no share has been excluded from voting at the time of convening.

Shareholders holding a minimum of five percent (5%) of the subscribed share capital have the right to demand inclusion of one or more items on the agenda of the General Meeting and have the right to submit resolutions with regard to General Meeting agenda items. The respective resolution must be submitted to the Company in writing together with a rationale or with a resolution proposal to the following address:

Logwin AG
c/o Haubrok Corporate Events GmbH
Landshuter Allee 10
80637 Munich
Germany
Fax: +49 (0)89 210 27 298
office@haubrok-ce.de

The proposal must have the address details of the sender so that the Company can confirm receipt of the request. The corresponding request must be received by the Company by March 20, 2012 at the latest.

Conditions of Participation

In accordance with the Luxembourgian law of May 24, 2011 about the exercising of various shareholder rights in General Meetings of publically listed companies (“Law on the Rights of Shareholders”), only those shareholders who are shareholders in the company as of midnight (Luxembourg Time) on March 28, 2012 (“Luxembourgian deadline”) may participate and vote in the General Meetings.

Any and all changes that relate to your shareholding that occur after the Luxembourgian deadline will not be considered with respect to the regulations regarding participation and/or voting rights at the General Meetings.

Only those shareholders who have registered before the respective General Meeting in writing in either German, English or French and have submitted proof of eligibility to participation to the Company are entitled to exercise their voting rights at the shareholders meeting.

The Company must have received the registration at the following address by April 4, 2012 at the latest.

Logwin AG
c/o Haubrok Corporate Events GmbH
Landshuter Allee 10
80637 Munich
Germany
Fax: +49 (0)89 210 27 298
meldedaten@haubrok-ce.de

Proof of eligibility to participation in the General Meetings and exercising voting rights occurs through the written certification in German, English or French from the depositary bank where the shareholder holds his or her Logwin AG shares. This certification must be received by the Company at the above address by April 6, 2012 at the latest.

Those persons who are entitled to participate after timely registration will be sent tickets for admission, upon the reverse of which a proxy form is printed.

Proxy Issuance

Voting rights may be exercised through use of a proxy. Proxies who have been named by the Company’s shareholders or by a voting representative named by the shareholders can also be issued by way of electronic media on the webpage <http://www.logwin-logistics.com/investors/events/annual-general-meeting.html> using the feature “Annual General Meetings 2012” and once here, under “Proxy Voting/Absentee Ballot”. Proxy voting representatives will be allowed to participate in the General Meetings with presentation of the admission ticket and a legitimately issued proxy. In the case that shareholders wish to authorise their depositary bank to exercise their voting rights, they must furnish their bank with a signed proxy form by April 10, 2012 at the latest. The depositary bank is authorised to appoint a substitute proxy.

Proxy Voting Representatives

In order to simplify the execution of their personal voting rights, Logwin AG provides the option of appointing a proxy voting representative prior to the meeting named by the Company and bound by instructions from the shareholder. Shareholders who wish to appoint the proxy voting representatives named by the Company to vote on their behalf will require an admission ticket to the General Meetings. To this end, shareholders must register by April 4, 2012 as described above in the Conditions of Participation.

With the admission ticket shareholders receive a form for issuing a proxy and instructions about the agenda points that require voting. The completed and signed form must be received no later than April 10, 2012 at the following address:

Logwin AG
c/o Haubrok Corporate Events GmbH
Landshuter Allee 10
80637 Munich
Germany
Fax: +49 (0)89 210 27 298
vollmacht@haubrok-ce.de

Proxies must be issued in written form. If one of the proxies named by the Company has been authorised by the shareholder, that person must further be given instruction about how they are to vote. Without such voting instructions the proxy is null and void. The proxy voting representatives are required to vote in accordance with the given instructions.

Authorisation of a proxy voting representative for the Company can alternatively be issued via the Internet under <http://www.logwin-logistics.com/investors/events/annual-general-meeting.html> under the feature “General Meetings 2012” and once here, under “Proxy Voting/Absentee Ballot”.

Shareholders can receive information about proxy voting representatives Monday through Friday – excepting bank holidays in Luxembourg – between 9.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. by calling +49 (0)89 210 27 222.

Shareholders who in view of participation and exercising of their voting rights wish to be represented by a proxy voting representative required to vote as instructed other than that named by the Company, will find for the issuance of a proxy a form on the back of the admission ticket which will be sent to the shareholder in accordance with the registration procedures described above.

Voting by Absentee Ballot

Shareholders who do not wish to participate in the General Meetings in person may cast their votes with an absentee ballot. Shareholders may use the form on the back of the admission ticket for this. Voting by way of absentee ballot can be sent by regular mail, by fax or by e-mail and must be received by April 10, 2012 at the latest at the following address:

Logwin AG
c/o Haubrok Corporate Events GmbH
Landshuter Allee 10
80637 Munich
Germany
Fax: +49 (0)89 210 27 298
briefwahl@haubrok-ce.de

Absentee voting may also take place electronically over the Internet under <http://www.logwin-logistics.com/investors/events/annual-general-meeting.html> under the feature "General Meetings 2012" and once here, under "Proxy Voting/Absentee Ballot" and must have taken place by April 10, 2012.
