

Logwin and Nunner Logistics to cooperate in the Netherlands

Grevenmacher (Luxembourg) / Helmond (Netherlands) – The two international logistics service providers Logwin and Nunner Logistics will in future work more closely together in the Netherlands. The companies have signed a corresponding cooperation agreement.

Logwin has been providing air and sea freight services in the Netherlands since 1996. Many customers can be found in the retailing and engineering sectors. Logwin is now strengthening its presence with this partnership in order to meet demand in the Netherlands and to address the importance of the market within Europe.

Nunner Logistics primarily serves customers in the automotive, hi-tech and chemicals sectors. The Dutch company, with its headquarters in Helmond, has over 27 years of logistics experience in the Netherlands.

Established partners

Nunner Logistics and Logwin have collaborated successfully in the past. The customers of both partners will benefit from the collaboration that has now been agreed. Nunner Logistics will have access to sea and air freight services and Logwin's global network while Logwin can extend its own service offering in the Netherlands with transportation and logistics products from logistics specialist Nunner. The complete service portfolio is thus available to customers of both companies in the Netherlands.
